

MEXICO ON EDGE AS VILLA PLANS NEW 'COME BACK'

Former Dictator Becoming More Restless as Private Citizen.

MEXICO CITY, May 5.—Francisco Villa, the former bandit leader, in a letter printed by El Universal Grafico, denies that he is a candidate for governor of the state of Durango.

EL PASO, Texas, May 5.—The announcement that Francisco Villa intends to run for the governorship of the state of Durango comes on the eleventh anniversary of his capture of Juarez, when he was a Maerista general.

In a little more than eleven years Villa has been a hunted outlaw, general of a revolutionary army, dictator of Mexico, border raider and rancher. This governorship is the first political office he ever has sought, although he could have been president of Mexico had he so chosen.

Farm life, even if on a tract of 200,000 acres, is irksome to Villa after having spent eleven years in the saddle, with the troops most of the time.

Although he entered into solemn compact with President Obregon to "stay put" in return for which Villa was given a small kingdom, riches and peace, it remains to be seen whether the former dictator will regard the compact as a misapprehension. For among the stipulations Villa agreed to was one binding himself to keep out of both state and national politics.

Won't Be Bound
Villa does not like to be bound to anything. His breaking away from restraint, his violation of his compact, his defiance of the Obregon administration, coming at the very time when the United States was about to extend recognition to Mexico, is fraught with grave possibilities.

Villa may be induced to withdraw his candidacy; he may stay in the race and be defeated. But Mexican officials are nervous, for whether elected or defeated for office, they fear the former dictator on another rampage.

If defeated he will not take it kindly. He could do many things in resentment.

If elected he may want to supersede federal powers. For Villa is not content with being an underling.

So there you are—the same old Villa, same old menace.

Reports from Durango are to the effect that Villa has announced he has caused a furor. There is strong support for Villa and strong opposition, too, and Mexico is not accustomed to settling its big issue by ballot. The state of Coahuila, a neighbor to Durango, is also disturbed and the fire if not quenched may spread, for Mexico hasn't had time yet to drop the insurrection habit.

Has Bodyguard of 200
Villa has a bodyguard of 200 men, all former soldiers, faithful and good shots. He has many other employes on his big ranch. Raising crops and stock and marketing them may not be profitable to him, but they are not in Villa's line. He is not a farmer or ranchman, and he ordains, supervises all the work. The ranch is his many tractors and other farm machinery were toys to a while, but the former dictator has grown tired of playing with them and longs for a new game, and it may be the old game, a game which kept Mexico embroiled and which all but took in the United States.

What Obregon will do is not known. Probably he doesn't know what to do. If he orders Villa to stay to his treaty, this might make an avowed enemy of him. If he sends a federal army to compel him to abide by his pledges, this means war.

A pretext would be all that Villa would need. Fomenting with the Durango rancher also is dangerous. It all depends upon the ambition of the former general.

Villa is fifty, young enough to still be ambitious.

HIGH SCHOOL ESSAYS MUST BE IN BY MAY 15

A check for $100, the prize offered by the Hutchinson Coal Co., to the Marion County high school pupil writing the best essay on "The State of the Union of the United States" was received by I. A. Barnes, county superintendent of school, in his mail today.

In connection with the receipt of the prize money, Superintendent Barnes announced that owing to a number of the high schools of the county closing earlier this year the deadline would be necessary to have all essays in this contest in the hands of the superintendent not later than May 15.

Superintendent Barnes said today that the trustee for the essay was chosen by Herbert Hoover, Secretary of Commerce in President Harding's cabinet, and that Secretary Hoover was keeping in touch with the contest and had written asking that a copy of the winning essay be forwarded to him just as soon as possible after the close of the contest.

The prize offered by the coal company, Superintendent Barnes says, is sufficient to make a large number of the pupils try for it, but the added honor that will be heaped upon the winner by the Department of Commerce in giving the essay publicity through that bureau will be much greater than the monetary reward. Superintendent Barnes is hoping that a number of fine essays will be entered, as it will go a long way in putting the schools of the county on the high school map of the United States.

FRANCISCO VILLA

ODD FELLOWS TO START BUILDING

New Home at Rivesville Expected to Be Under Way in Near Future.

RIVESVILLE, May 5.—There will be an important meeting of the local Odd Fellows organization in the Arnett Hall on Monday evening. That this lodge is determined to begin work on its new building was fully settled at the regular meeting this week. A committee composed of Ross Perry, Frank Hess and Fred Coogles was appointed to consider plans for the construction of the new home. The lodge already owns a very desirable building site in Jasper street, just opposite the M. E. Church South.

Church Plans
Members of the congregation of the M. E. Church South, are considering plans for adding to their church in Jasper street. During the past several months, the congregation has found it impossible to properly care for the crowds that gather each Sunday for services. Especially is this true of the Sunday school, which for some time has been held in the local school building. While no definite date has been announced for beginning work on the new addition, it is hoped to have everything in working order before the beginning of another conference year.

Bible Classes
Homes have been chosen as meeting places for the various Bible classes of the community for the coming week. The First Ward class will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Hamrick in High Lanes, with Harry Hamrick as teacher. The Second Ward class will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Thrash this evening at 7:30 with Sylvester Arnett as leader. The Third Ward class will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sargeant of the Parker's Run Addition. This meeting will be on Monday evening and J. S. Coogles will instruct the class.

Town Improvements
Under the supervision of Mayor J. W. Richards, the town is going in for various improvements.

Children's Week
The Observation of "Children's Week" which just closed is this community, brought about a closer cooperation among the parents of the younger pupils of the Sunday school and the teachers of the young people. Much credit is given the teachers who even at this busy time of year visited practically every home in the community where there are children. As a result, the primary department has had a slight increase. The campaign closed Sunday, and a splendid program given at the M. E. Church South was a closing feature of the work. Mrs. Mary and Yost had charge of the program, which was given at 11 a. m. The program consisted of songs, recitations, talks on child welfare and two especially good talks by the Rev. G. P. Thomas and Dr. W. L. Coogles.

U. B. Church
The foundation of the U. B. Church at this place was completed the first of the week, and work on the raising of the frame is progressing nicely. The Rev. O. B. Bauman of Mannington was in town tonight, and is personally supervising the work.

Baseball
On Tuesday evening of this week the Thomas Club met the Montana team on the local baseball field, and defeated the visitors by a score of 12-1. The game which was played with the local team on Thursday afternoon was canceled on account of the rain.

Sells Business
The Rivesville Bottling Works owned and operated last year by Ivanhoe Arnett, have recently been bought by a bottling firm from Monongah. The machinery and fixtures were moved last week.

Birthday Party
A most enjoyable surprise party was given on Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sargeant of the First Ward. The affair was in honor of P. M. Huey of Benton's Ferry, father of Mrs.

Sargeant. Mr. Huey received a number of fine presents and the evening passed merrily, refreshments being served the guests at a suitable hour. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Vincent, Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Keener, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Vincent, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. James Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Misses Virginia Carpenter, Gay Vincent, Madeline Huey, Virginia and Helen Johnson, Sallie Stewart, Margaret Collins, Virginia Jenkins, Messrs Roy and Vernon Huey, Lonnie Vincent, Tom Stewart, Harry Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sargeant.

Mrs. Grice Hostess
At a meeting of the members of the Evergreen Sunday School Class of the M. E. Church South, which was held at the home of the teacher, Mrs. Daniel Grice, on Thursday evening, an election of class officers was held with the following results: President Ruth Hamrick; vice president, Doris Huffman; secretary, Ruby Laman; assistant secretary, Virginia Brown; treasurer, Mary Hamrick; pianist, Gertrude Wilson. After the business of the class was concluded, the girls spent a pleasant social hour and were treated to apples. The presenters were Helen Bowman, Ruth Hamrick, Mary Daujack, Doris Huffman, Pansy Shumaker, Francis Grice and Mary Hamrick.

Miss Huffman Suffers Relapse
Miss Mary Huffman, who has been a surgical patient for the past two weeks, suffered a relapse the first of the week and for a time seemed to be in very serious condition. At this time, however, she seems to be again improving, but it will be necessary for her to remain at the hospital for several days yet.

Sundays Services
The following services will be held at the M. E. Church South next Sunday. Sunday school at 10 a. m., George Hamrick, superintendent; preaching at 11 a. m. with sermon by the Rev. J. W. Richards; Junior Epworth League at 3:00 p. m.; Senior Epworth League at 6:30 p. m., Miss Beatrice Nicholson, leader; public worship at 7:30 in charge of the Young Men's Service Club.

The evangelistic services which are being held at Monumental Church are moving along nicely. The Rev. G. P. Thomas, pastor of the local M. E. Church South, is conducting the services jointly with Rev. I. S. Tyler of the M. E. Church South of Fairview. The meetings are being well attended, and much interest is being shown in the personal work of the church.

Attend Funeral
Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Keener were at Colfax last Sunday, where they went to be present at the funeral of Mrs. Mattie Caldwell.

K. of P.
The members of the local lodge of Knights of Pythias will hold their regular business meeting next Tuesday evening. As there is much business to be adjusted at this time, it is necessary that all members be present, it is said.

To Transfer to Fairmont
The Rivesville Degree of Honor Protective Association, which was organized here some time ago is combining with the Fairmont order. All members will be transferred to the Fairmont branch on May 15.

Persons
Mr. and Mrs. Rannie Merrill and family are moving to the new home in High Lanes which they recently purchased from Ezra Keener.

Mr. and Mrs. Okey Veech Swisher were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Phillips last Sunday.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dominac Delarco has been very seriously ill for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Radcliffe have been attending the special services at Monumental this week and assisting in the meetings.

Mrs. M. B. Barker has returned from a few days' visit with relatives at Little Falls.

Miss Julia Snider has returned to her home at Arnettville after a visit with her sister, Mrs. Tillie Snodgrass.

Miss Dorothy McDowell will entertain the members of the True Blue Sunday School Class at her home in High Lanes Friday evening.

Hugh Snodgrass was a business visitor in Wheeling the first of the week.

Mrs. Nellie Snider of Fairmont was called here last Sunday on account of the illness of her brother, David Pickett.

The baseball team of this place, which was to have played a game with Baxter yesterday evening, canceled the game on account of weather conditions.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Toothman are spending a week with the former's brothers, Eph and Lee Keefover, who reside in the Cheat Mountains near Morgantown.

The Misses Winifred and Lulu Snider of Fairmont spent Sunday with Miss Nettie Hawkins.

The Rebecca lodge members will have a business meeting in Arnett Hall Thursday evening of next week.

Guy Bailey is showing some improvement after a week's illness of quinsy and tonsillitis.

Philly Swisher of Bellview was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nay of Morgan Mines near here the first of the week.

MILLIONAIRE WIDOW WEDS
32-YEAR-OLD HOLLANDER

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 5.—The marriage of Mrs. James Campbell, widow of the late president of the North American Co., who was reported to be the wealthiest man in St. Louis, and Henry Kias Van Heel in San Diego on April 18 was announced here today by the couple. Mrs. Van Heel is 32, and he is a literary dilettante and she is heir to one-half of the income from her first husband's $20,000,000 estate. Van Heel is a native of Holland.
